Carcasses of neat cattle, sheep, or swine, wherever slaughtered, shall not be sold or offered for sale in the city of Portland unless they have been inspected at the time of slaughter by an official inspector and bear the stamp of approval of said inspector in like manner as those inspected by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry for interstate trade.

Any person violating any of the provisions hereof, shall be subject to a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $20 for each offense.

PORTLAND, OREG.

Common Drinking Cups and Common Towels—Prohibited in Public Places. (Ord. 29270, July 29, 1914.)

SECTION 1. No person, firm, or corporation in control of or in charge of any railroad station, public school, public building, hotel, saloon, restaurant, theater, armory, or any public place of amusement, or in any lavatory maintained for or used by the general public shall place, furnish, or keep any common drinking cup or common towel for public use or permit their use.

SEC. 2. The term "common drinking cup" as used herein is defined to be any vessel or utensil used in conveying water to the mouth and available to common use by the public or to guests, patrons, or inmates of the places mentioned in section 1. The term "common towel" as used herein shall be construed to mean roller towel or a towel intended or available for common use by more than one person without being laundered after such use.

SEC. 3. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof in the municipal court, be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $200.

Rabies—Muzzling of Dogs Required. (Ord. 28872, Apr. 24, 1914.)

SECTION 1. All dogs within the city of Portland not kept or controlled within a sufficient inclosure, led or secured by a line, rope, or chain, or muzzled so effectually as to prevent the animal from biting persons or animals are hereby declared to be a nuisance and a menace to health and safety.

SEC. 2. All persons owning or having control of any dogs within the city of Portland not kept within a sufficient inclosure, led or secured by a line, rope, or chain shall so muzzle the animal as to effectually prevent it from biting persons or animals. The said muzzle shall be of a wire design and shall at all times be properly adjusted so as to cover the dog's nose, mouth, and head and fasten around the neck or to the collar.

SEC. 3. All dogs within the city of Portland which shall be allowed to run at large without being muzzled as provided by section 2 of this ordinance shall, immediately upon the taking effect of this ordinance, be confined within the city pound by the poundmaster or any of his deputies. Any dog so confined by the poundmaster may be reclaimed by the owner thereof within five days after the taking up of such dog, provided such owner shall pay to the poundmaster the sum of $3 and furnish a muzzle to be placed on such dog. All dogs not so reclaimed by the owner thereof shall be retained for five days within the city pound and then disposed of in the manner provided by law.
